SINCE 1931

THE BEGINNING

KAKA, a term of endearment usually refers to the eldest one in the family. The eldest one of 5 siblings, Sh. Amolak Ram Chopra 'set-up-shop' in the early 1930's on the streets of Lahore. A small road-side eatery, serving quality food at reasonable prices. His commitment to serve healthy and hygienic food soon made KAKE DA HOTEL a household name across Lahore. The partition in 1947, brought KAKE DA HOTEL to New Delhi; the capital of free INDIA. Amidst the chaos of partition, Sh. Amolak Ram Chopra, set up a small eatery on the footpaths of Connaught Place with the same fervor and commitment. Our reputation for serving healthy food soon caught attention of many critics and patrons, alike. The name KAKE DA HOTEL grew to be a shining star in the food industry across Delhi and the rest of the country

Ambassadors of Authentic Indian & Mughlai Cuisines

Kake Da Hotel is a legendary family restaurant, founded by Late Shri Amolak Ram Chopra during pre-independence era in 1931, in Lahore (now in Pakistan).

Nicknamed as 'Kaka', meaning youngster, Amolak Ram Chopra was a visionary entrepreneur who believed in providing delicious food to as many people as possible at affordable prices.

After India's partition and independence in 1947, Amolak Ram Chopra moved to New Delhi and started his food venture on a wooden cart in Connaught Place...and the rest is history. Today, Kake Da Hotel successfully operates multiple restaurants in all over India

Over the years, Kake Da Hotel has become a famous landmark in Delhi. For their quality and food, Kake Da Hotel was presented with "Sanads" by the Ministry of Health, Government of India.
